To: NTA Members

From: Megan Wieczerzak, Scholarship Chair

Attached is a copy of the application for this year's NTA Scholarship ($1000). This award is given to a child, stepchild, or foster child of an association member. The recipient must be planning to pursue some type of post-secondary education. Other eligible applicants are those dependents currently enrolled in college. An individual can be awarded the scholarship up to 2x's in their pursuit of a degree in a related field, but not in consecutive years.

All interested applicants should submit a completed application on or before Monday, April 17, 2022. Applications submitted after 2:30 pm on April 17th will NOT be eligible for review. Please send a hard copy (emailed applications will not be accepted) of the completed application through interoffice mail to Megan Wieczerzak at Newington High School. You may also drop the application off at Newington High School(c/o Megan Wieczerzak) between the hours of 8:00 am and 2:30 pm. The final selection will be made by the NTA Scholarship Committee and presented at the NTA Retirement Social or the NTA annual meeting.
